FYI – Greenaction filed a supplement to their NRC petition. It is based on the Navy findings reports, and a big focus of theirs (confirmed by my call to Steve Castleman) is that they don't think the Navy or the regulators have done enough investigation (i.e., interviewing former workers) to ensure that they have identified the extent of the fraud.

Brianna,

Attached, as promised, is a copy of the supplemental filing we lodged with the NRC last Thursday in support of our petition to revoke Tetra Tech's license.

Please contact me if you have any questions about the matter.
